PARENT ASSEMBLIES

Thank you to all the parents who attended this weeks Reception and Y4 assemblies. It is always great to see what children have been learning and to celebrate their hard work. These continue next week with Assemblies for RWL and 4B. We look forward to greeting you.

RUGBY TOURNAMENT

Well done to all of those who took part in last weeks Bexley Rugby Tournament. Our team played really well, placing 5th overall. They were a real credit to the school and the extra training they had been putting in was clear.

CROSS COUNTRY CUP

Our Cross Country team were competing on Wednesday at the Bexley Cross Country Cup. Many of the team have been training with Miss Cusselle at 7.30am each week. The team ran exceptionally well.

PHONICS TRAINING

Thankyou to all of the Reception Parents that attended Thursdays Phonics Training Session, focused on Speed Sounds Set 2 and 3. We are particularly proud of the phonics progress at Hillsgrove and fully recognise how important your support at home has been. I hope the resources and training are helpful.

FOOTBALL TEAM

The schools Football B team are at Meridian Training ground in Greenwich tonight for the next games in the Greenwich B League. They have made a great start this year. Good Luck.

SPRING TERM REPORTS

Thank you for the extremely positive response to the Spring Term reports and particularly the new structure. We will of course use your feedback in order to continuously improve our reporting to support your child as best we can.

FIXTURES NEXT WEEK

Our Football A Team are out at Meridian Training Ground in Greenwich next week on Friday with Mr Heath. We will report back in the next few weeks with scores and table updates.
