

HILLSGROVE PRIMARY SCHOOL SINCE 1950

NEWSLETTER: Friday 8th December 2017

THIS WEEK

4E and 4L were on educational visits to Avery Hill and their Winter Gardens on Monday and Friday this week. They had a fantastic trip, learning a huge amount and were a real credit to the school.

CIVIC CELEBRATION OF PUPIL ACHIEVEMENTS

This Tuesday 2 of our pupils were recognised for their academic and artistic success at the Bexley Civic Achievements Awards. They were: Mia Nguyen for her excellence with the Violin, Molly Arkwright for her outstanding dance performances and Kiruthieshan Arulnithi for academic performance. Congratulations all, we are very proud of your achievements.

PARENT FORUM

A big thank you to all of our Parent Representatives who attended last weeks Parent Forum. This is proving to be a really good way to communicate with parents and to both address any questions and to work together to move the school forward. Responses to questions raised will be added to the Parents section of the website.

PTA CHRISTMAS FAYRE

A big thank you to our PTA and Staff for a fantastic Christmas Fayre. These events take a huge amount of planning and preparation, thank you for all the time you have given. As a result the PTA raised: £1,508. Well Done All.

POPPIES

Thank you for your generosity in supporting the poppy appeal. We raised £213.08

BOOK FAIR

Thank you for supporting our Book fair, this raised £680.58 for school books.

HILSGROVE PRIMARY SCHOOL SINCE 1950

ACHIEVERS AWARDS

AWARDS 7TH DECEMBER 2017

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Harry Weal	RWL	For never giving up and trying very hard in his phonics. We are very proud of his great achievements.
George Weal	RC	For developing his resilience and confidence when reading and writing and making quick progress with this since starting reception.
Ellie Harding	1H	For applying her learning of diary entry features at home, to write a detailed diary about her weekend and developing her ICT skills by typing this up on the computer.
Callum Fleetwood	1M	For being a resourceful learner who enthusiastically shares his ideas. He has become resilient enough to persevere despite any setbacks and will keep on trying until he has achieved what he set out to do. As a result he is making good progress, particularly in his maths.
Grace Friend	2CK	Grace has developed her resilience and making a fantastic contribution in all curriculum areas. Grace can offer excellent explanations for the meaning of some very challenging vocabulary and phrases across the wide range of reading in class.
Bobby Davies	2FC	For taking responsibility for his own learning and always doing his best. For being a resourceful learner who independently uses the environment around him to support his learning.

Frankie Burgess-Smith	5H	For the fantastic attitude, determination and resilience that he shows in every lesson.
Shezei Amune	5B	For using a mature, formal voice in her writing which suits the genre.
Callum Wilson	6H	For his continued hard work in all curriculum subjects and especially in Science and RE.
Vivian Kellman	6R	For her outstanding poetry writing in English, using figurative language effectively to communicate her ideas.
